

FRENCH BLUEBEARD GETS A REPRIEVE

(By Associated Press) PARIS, Feb. 10—(Herr) Desire Landru under indictment charged with the murder of 11 women to whom at various times he had promised marriage, and whose trial before the French assizes had been set for March 1, has succeeded in obtaining another postponement of his trial. Landru has been in jail for two years and recently was sentenced to five years in jail and subsequent deportation for swindling. Under French law, a man accused of crime has the right to take cognizance of the dossier in his case after facing the jury. He may file a writ upon the legality of all of the documents being submitted to the jury.

The dossier in Landru's case includes 2,000 documents, all of which have to be copied, as the public prosecutor does not trust the originals in the hands of the accused. The work of copying the documents will occupy more than a month.

Landra has informed the court that it will require several weeks to study the documents.

He intends to challenge all of them as irrelevant.

Landra caused considerable worry and annoyance to Judge Bonin while the latter was investigating the case and now that it has been turned over to the prosecutor of the republic he has adopted the same tactics.

Two of the assistants of the prosecutor who reproached him with procrastination saying that French parser has other things to look after than the Landra case, the alleged French Bluebeard replied:

"Then why don't you let me go? I am perfectly willing." Then he added: "How I miss Judge Bonin! In legal he was a gentleman."
